

We have analyzed the Market trends by using sales information to reconcile cost tables and have applied factors to neighborhoods as required to bring values with in the IAAO standards.

On the value changes file the hi lighted areas indicate parcels that have a wrong property class number and the County is correcting these at this time. The other hi lighted areas are parcels that are part of a larger parcel that carries all he improvement value.